

NISQUALLY YOUTH CENTER TUTORS

1937 Lashi Street SE, Olympia, WA 98513

Students' 1st-12th grade, do you need help with homework, writing a report, or study for an upcoming exam... the youth center has two amazing tutors that are here to help.

MONICA MCDONALD

Specialized in Elementary, can work with all ages and grades.

My name is Monica McDonald, and I am a speech-language pathologist. I graduated from Nova Southeastern University with a Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology. I am passionate about helping children who experience reading difficulty and providing families and caregivers with resources and strategies that will allow them to maximize their child's literacy. With support from families, I strive to transform today's readers into tomorrow's leaders.

Office Hours: Mon-Fri 4-6PM

MASIE VOLLEENDORFF

Specialized in Middle and High School History and English.

My name is Masie Vollendorff, I am a Nisqually descendant. I have a bachelor's degree in history in the Second Education from Central Washington University. I am very excited to help out with tutoring this year! Although this is my second official year of teaching, I would like to say I am more than prepared to make sure students are learning to the best of their abilities and if they are in any need of help, I will be more than willing to be there.

Office Hours: Tue-Thurs by appt.
