

NISQUALLY TRIBAL HEALTH & WELLNESS CENTER

4840 Journey St SE
Olympia, WA 98513
(360) 459-5312 (Main)
(360) 456-1557 (Fax)

Direct Services Provided to Nisqually Tribal Members

NTHWC Behavioral Health Program

We provide culturally rooted individual and group behavioral health services addressing substance use disorder, mental health, problem gambling, grief, domestic violence, medication-assisted treatment, and more. Each journey is unique, and we are here to support individuals throughout theirs.

Direct Services:

- SUD Assessments
- SUD Individual
- SUD Outpatient group
- SUD Intensive outpatient groups
- Detox Referrals
- Inpatient treatment Referrals
- Outreach/Peer Support services
- Mental Health Intake/Counseling
- Mental Health Outpatient Groups
- Problem Gambling treatment
- Domestic Violence intervention treatment
- Cultural activities

Brighton Creek Recovery Campus

- Clean and Sober Recovery Housing
- SUD Individual sessions
- SUD process groups
- Peer Services
- Culture activities
- Resident House meetings
- Learning Life skills

Contact Information:

4840 Journey Street SE, Olympia, WA 98513

Phone: (360) 459-5312, Option 4

Program Director: Kelly Knittle (kelly.knittle@nisquallyhealth.org)